Action planning for pair and group talk

Write down one thing that you have thought about in this session that you will try out in your teaching next week with one class.

Think about one of your classes that needs to improve in terms of speaking skills. Which 2 strategies do you think might help them most?

What is worth sharing with your department from today's session and how might you want to build on what you have considered today?

Rachel Hawkes