

Week 6

This week the focus has been food and drink and eating out. Use the following online resources to consolidate and extend you knowledge of food and drink vocabulary.

1 www.busuu.com

i) Beginner A1 – Lesson 12

Lesson 12: Food and Drink

Learn how to identify and talk about some basic foods.

0% complete

 >
  >
  >

 The shopping list Countable and uncountable Writing Voice Recording

 Media units

ii) Beginner A1. A1.2 – Lesson 6

Lesson 6: Let's have some drinks

Learn how to use large numbers and order a drink.

0% complete

 >
  >
  >

 At the bar Numbers 3 Writing Voice Recording

 Media units

iii) Elementary A2 -- Lesson 8

Lesson 8: Eating out

Learn how to talk about meals out.

0% completeAt the restaurantHow does it taste?

Writing

Voice
Recording

Media units

2 <http://www.languagesonline.org.uk/Hotpotatoes/Index.htm>

From the homepage, select Español from the menu on the left-hand side. You will then see a list of units (Unidades) and a description of what is contained in each. Choose Caminos 1, Unidad 11, and complete the tasks 1-15:

Caminos 1 Unidad 11

1. Food & drink - matching-up exercise
2. Las bebidas - crossword
3. The verb QUERER - gap-fill exercise
4. ¿Cuánto es? - gap-fill exercise with numbers
5. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
6. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
7. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
8. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
9. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
10. Unscrambling words to make up sentences
11. La comida - Crossword
12. En la cafetería - Matching-up exercise
13. El menú - Multiple-choice
14. Preferir / Querer - Gap-fill exercise
15. Para - Matching-up exercise

3 YouTube

Listen to this 4-min learning clip to practise pronunciation of a range of different vocabulary:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4C77eJEQzng>

And this one has all the vocabulary you need for eating out at a restaurant:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5sIf0q6c-0w>

This 5-min clip has verbal and written explanations of a range of typical Spanish dishes. He speaks fast (!) but you can follow along with the text on screen and there's a picture of each dish to help, too!

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X6_x5I9nAPA