

Choose well – choose languages!

Making languages the right choice for all students

Wednesday 19 January 10.00 – 15.30

‘By practitioners for practitioners’

Specialist School and Academies Trust Lead practitioner[®] led seminars offers a high quality, professional development opportunity to share best practice and explore innovative ideas.

For a one-off fee of £89 you can:

- attend the lead practice seminar
- gain access to cutting edge practice
- gather practical ideas and resources to support you in your everyday work
- be part of an ongoing network of dynamic practitioners

About this seminar:

This seminar explores how to make languages appeal to learners of all abilities at KS3 so that they opt to continue at KS4. It includes the following sessions:

- Session 1: What’s my motivation?
Successful strategies that engage learners including: skills-based teaching, ‘age-appropriate’ content, creative uses of technology and cross-curriculum links
- Session 2: Assessment for all. Three alternative assessment models offered by the qualifications NVQ, Asset and CoPE International are explored in detail, including models of implementation.
- Session 3: The ‘X’ factor: learning outside the classroom
This session focuses on a range of inspiring ideas for projects, competitions and awards that are easy to integrate into language provision.
- All ideas and resources presented in the seminar will be available to take away in electronic format on the day.
